

8th Ten Bell Works (4/9-4/27)

1. Write a haiku about your spring break! A Haiku is a poem that has three lines:

First line has 5 syllables

Second line has 7 syllables

Third line has 5 syllables

2. Draw a picture of two roads that represent two life decisions you've had to make. Which road did you take? Why did you take that one and not the other?
3. What do you know about William Shakespeare? What do you know about life in the 1500s? How do you think Shakespeare and hip-Hop relate?
4. Write down one thing you remember from class on Friday. (If you were absent, write down something you did this weekend.)
5. What kind of part would you like to have in Romeo & Juliet? Big, medium, small, extra...?
6. Make a prediction about what will happen to your character in the end of the play.
7. (If you know, don't spoil it for the rest of us!)
8. What are you doing this weekend? :)
9. What are your thoughts on the EOC? Do you feel prepared? Are you nervous to take it? Do you know what to expect?
10. What's your favorite movie?
11. Draw a picture of what you think the famous "Balcony Scene" (the scene we read last class) would look like.
